17

De La Espada

De La Espada's furniture is rooted in a dedication to simple, modern design and integrity of materials. Their solid wood furniture, which includes chairs, benches, tables, beds, lamps, cabinets, and shelves, is manufactured in Portugal with impeccable craftsmanship. Designers from Portugal, Spain, Turkey, Japan, and Great Britain contribute to De La Espada's vast collection.

18

Molteni & C

Since 1934 when Angelo Molteni started building quality furniture, history and innovation became an entrepreneurial dream. Today, with furnishing systems like 505 and Pass, Molteni & C offers a complete collection of home furnishings and organizational solutions. The collections speak of the world, promoting and giving value to the heart and soul of true craftsmanship. The Molteni & C brand brings style to life and turns space into a place, a place which is lasting.

24

Foscarini

Research and innovation, attention to quality in production, an international focus, maximum flexibility and, above all, a product-centered culture that is the result of good design: these are the elements that characterize Foscarini's company identity. As a result of these qualities, Foscarini has managed to develop its collection of models with a strong personality, the fruit of coherence between design and production.

27

Kartell

Kartell items are immediately recognized throughout the world for their emotional character, durable functionality and undisputed quality. Continual evolution in the use of materials—aimed at discovering their hidden qualities—and experimentation with new technology is fundamental for the development of Kartell products. Iconic pieces, like the Louis Ghost Chair, are an excellent addition to modern decor and make a bold statement in traditional spaces.

Bisazza

Bisazza is known globally as a leader in luxury decorative materials for interior and exterior applications. For over fifty years, the Italian company has worked with top designers to create and apply tiles to an endless number of surfaces. The rich colors and bold patterns of Bisazza tiles are at once modern and classical. The ancient craft of mosaic tiles has been taken to a higher level with the Bisazza tile collection.

Missoni

This family-run company has been at the forefront of Italian fashion since husband and wife Tai and Rosita started creating their innovative and unconventional knits in the basement of their home in 1953. Known for its multitude of patterns, such as stripes, geometrics, and abstract florals in a kaleidoscope of colors, the Missoni line has always impressed the world with its vibrant creations. Today, the Italian brand's unmistakable prints and knitwear have been brought into the home, echoing modern needs and tastes in everyday living spaces.

Artemide

For almost half a century, Artemide has aimed to propose light as a companion to people, as a source of physical pleasure and mental comfort. Founded in 1959, the company has staked out a distinctive identity as a technology-forward firm that produces high-end precision lighting. Artemide is best known for the classic Tizio, Richard Sapper's finely balanced black desk lamp from 1972. It is in that same spirit that the company continues today to collaborate with innovative talent, creating lighting that will stand the test of time.

35

Successful Living from Diesel

Drawing from their world-renowned fashion aesthetic and teaming up with Moroso and Foscarini, two major Italian companies known for their cutting-edge designs, Diesel has entered the furniture and lighting arena. Taking inspiration from an informal lifestyle concept, the Diesel “Successful Living” collection offers retro-modern lighting of supreme quality and edgy, industrial living pieces with a beautifully rugged feel.

36

Emu

Emu designs products for outdoor living, including products for lounging, dining and lighting. Practical and durable, Emu chairs and tables are perfect for restaurant and hospitality use, but are also elegant and comfortable for any residence. Emu's products are created in Italy, where innovations in production methods and design have allowed the line to evolve over the company's sixty-year history.

Gervasoni

Since 1882, the Gervasoni collections have been created by seamlessly matching the unpredictable variety of the organic world with the uniformity and rationality of technological innovation. The focus on craft quality, respect for the environment and the constant search for new materials are all elements of an ideal system. It is this system which guides and supports, producing a timeless array of collections both classic and ultra-modern in style.

Glas Italia

Glas Italia is a leading manufacturer of glass products that are equally as stunning as they are technologically ground-breaking. As a company, they have experimented with innovative processes to produce beautiful pieces that are pure in form and aesthetic. From mirrors to end tables, dining tables to desks, Glas Italia can create an entire living space made solely from glass with a quality that is without equal. The craftsmanship of each piece is remarkable - precise yet elegant.

Vioski

The Vioski furniture collection conveys an elegant modernism that reflects Jeff Vioski's background in architecture. Each piece offers clean, well-balanced proportions and the comfort necessary for today's relaxed urban lifestyles. The collection joins modern lines with the finest materials, rich textures and an innovative flexibility of use. The result is a style that is modern yet warm, clean-lined yet comfortable, sophisticated yet practical.

45

Luceplan

Producing contemporary Italian lighting since 1978, Luceplan lighting merges new design and technological solutions with enduring style, quality, function, and efficiency. Luceplan was born with a simple objective: creating and producing interior and exterior lighting that enhances the quality of life. The product portfolio consists of a wide range of consumer luminaries with a strong design component. Luceplan has a broad range of table and floor lamps, ceiling pendants and wall fixtures, as well as an outdoor range, which reflects the quality of design and innovation of the indoor products.

46

Nanimarquina

Since its origins in 1987, Nanimarquina has been designing rugs and other textile products, paying particular attention to research on raw materials and production processes. These factors enrich the aesthetic aspect of the products, which become the true stars, giving the brand its visibility and commercial success.

The company continues to make the principle on which it was founded a reality: to reinvent the rug. Giving the rug new uses, new concepts, and playing with elements such as shape, color and texture. Nanimarquina rugs are contemporary in spirit, manufactured using traditional methods and are intended to be statements about the area we inhabit.

47

Maharam

A century-old, fourth-generation family business, Maharam approaches fabric design holistically. They embrace a range of disciplines including architecture, interiors, furniture, fashion, accessories, graphic and digital media. The New York based Maharam Design Studio oversees the development of an extensive textile collection, ranging from re-editions of the work of noted past design visionaries to collaborations with avant-garde industry outsiders. The Maharam line is included in the permanent collections of the Art Institute of Chicago, the Cooper-Hewitt National Design Museum and The Museum of Modern Art in New York, among others.

Planika Fires

Planika Fires create real fire without any smoke. Designed by distinguished designers, the fireplaces become the focal point of any interior. For the ultimate in elegance and style, Planika is the choice for a modern fireplace. Warm, comforting flames contained in beautiful designs of glass and stainless steel give you the magic of a fireplace without smoke, ash, or smell.

Geneva Sound Systems

Geneva Sound Systems are perfect for a modern lifestyle. A true integration of furniture and audio system, Geneva Sound Systems allow you to connect your iPod, iPhone, TV, turntable, or other sound source to the Geneva Sound unit. Each Geneva cabinet has four, six, or seven speakers, resulting in high-quality sound with the best and latest audio technology inside a single, sleek, wood-crafted unit.
